If the Unthinkable Happens...
Chai Lifeline is There.

For two decades, Project CHAI, Chai Lifeline’s Department of Crisis Intervention, Trauma and Bereavement has provided support for families, schools, synagogues, and community organizations following natural disasters, crises, traumas and terrorist activities around the corner and across the globe.

Project CHAI teams are ready to respond immediately as crises unfold. Teams are operating in Antwerp, Belgium • Boro Park, NY • Crown Heights, NY • Detroit, MI • Flatbush, NY • Kansas City, MO • Lakewood, NJ • Las Vegas, NV • Melbourne (Australia) • Monroe, NY • Monsey, NY • Montreal, CA • and Williamsburg, NY, providing immediate assistance to communities.

Services include:
• Immediate support for affected families
• Clinical interventions
• Consultations with schools, synagogues and community organizations
• Educational materials
• On-site presentations
• Weekend retreats

We have responded 5,678 times to crisis and traumatic situations in Argentina • Brazil • Chile • Germany • Great Britain (Gateshead, London, Manchester) • Mexico City • Paris • Montreal • Switzerland • Sydney (Australia) • Toronto • Vancouver • Vienna • and Russia. In the US, our teams have worked in Arkansas • Atlanta • Boston • Brookline • Chicago • Cincinnati • Cleveland • Columbus, OH • Dallas • Hawaii • Houston • Milwaukee • Philadelphia • Phoenix • Pittsburgh • Portland, OR • San Diego • and San Francisco in addition to teams’ home cities.